
Projector – Switching Between the Apple TV and Computer

To project from your PC, press the source button and select Computer1.

To project from the Apple TV, press source button and select HDMI.

Projecting from PC – Changing from Duplicate Screen Mode to Extended Screen Mode

Projecting from PC - To show the same image from the computer monitor on the projector, press and hold the windows button then press P on the keyboard. Select “Duplicate” from the projection options. To extend your projector as a secondary monitor, press and hold down the windows button then press P on the keyboard. Select extend from the projection options to set the projector screen to the right of your computer screen.

